

DO YOU WANT TO TRAIN TO BECOME A TEACHER?

Did you know that you can train to be a teacher at the North East Schools Teaching Alliance – NESTA, which is based at Nunthorpe Academy, Guisborough Road, Middlesbrough, TS7 0LA?

NESTA, in partnership with the outstanding Northumbria University, offers School Direct Initial Teacher Training places for both Primary and Secondary teaching. Secondary places are available in English, Maths, Physics, Chemistry, Geography, History, Languages and Design & Technology.

The 10 month course leads to Qualified Teacher Status (QTS) and a PGCE. Trainees must have GCSEs in English and Maths, (and Science for Primary teaching), at Grade C or better. They must also have a degree at a minimum of a 2:2 and, for Secondary teaching, preferably in a subject related to that they want to teach. In addition trainees need to pass a Literacy and Numeracy Skills Test. Ideally applicants would have some classroom based experience which NESTA can help organise.

Bursaries are available depending on the subject and degree – for shortage subjects this can be up to £26,000. For further information regarding bursaries please visit www.gov.uk/funding-initial-teacher-training-itt-academic-year-2018-to-19.

Teaching is a creative, challenging and incredibly rewarding profession - the joy of working with young people and the chance to make a positive difference to young lives make it a role like no other.

If you are thinking about teaching as a career, whether you are freshly out of University or wanting a career change, consider joining the NESTA family. Recruitment is via UCAS and you can apply NOW to start training in September 2018.

If you need any further information or would like to visit NESTA and chat about the programme please contact Nicki Smith, Assistant Vice Principal – NESTA via nsmith@nunthorpe.co.uk.

We're looking forward to hearing from you soon!
