

Letter from The Chief Executive

Dear applicant,

We are delighted you have shown an interest in the role of Headteacher at Ormesby Primary School.

Ironstone Academy Trust is looking to attract a Headteacher to work at Ormesby Primary School, who is of the highest calibre. The successful candidate must demonstrate the desire and determination to lead on improving the quality of teaching, learning and all-round educational provision at this inspirational school.

This is an exciting role within our Trust of 6 schools. All our Head teachers work with passion and enthusiasm to support and challenge their colleagues; your appointment will enable you to contribute to wider Trust development as part of a successful team.

We are looking for a leader who can inspire others and demonstrate a record of delivering high pupil outcomes. You must have experience and a strong background in successful school leadership. We are also looking for a leader who can adapt and be flexible with any challenges they may face. The leader will be supported by the Trust in ensuring Ormesby Primary school continues to be an excellent place for pupils to learn and staff to work.

We see our schools as being at the heart of their community, the successful applicant will build connections with a wide range of stakeholders, to the benefit of pupils and staff.

Our Senior Leaders have access to nationally recognised professional development programmes, as well as our own 'in house' training.

If your experience, energy, personal qualities and values support ours, then we look forward to receiving your application.
